The Mission Inn

We are very pleased to announce our 2011 Fall Class at the beautiful and historic Mission Inn Hotel in Riverside, California on October 15, 2011. The Mission Inn is a resort in the Spanish grand tradition, an architectural landmark, with arched cathedral ceilings, courtyards, and gardens. With its own rich history, and hundreds of art pieces collected from all over the world, The Mission Inn conducts daily tours.

In 1961 and 1962 Joel Goldsmith conducted Classes at The Mission Inn, and these series of lectures are chronicled in Joel's tape catalogue. Joel loved this hotel and how it transported you into an atmosphere of serenity and beauty.

Mrs. Geri McDonald and Mrs. Sue Ropac will be giving the lecture Classes. The subjects will be The Attitude and Altitude of Spiritual Living with related Monthly Letter subjects, and The True Nature of Communion. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Ropac will be available after Classes to speak with individual students. There will be two (one hour) Open Classes at 10:00am and 2:00pm. After the 2:00pm Class, there will be a catered refreshment table with desserts and beverages in the meeting room. At 6:00pm, there will be a Closed Class for those students enrolled in the Inner Kingdom Consciousness Course, based upon some of Joel's personal writings.

The cost for the two Open Classes is $75.

The cost for the evening 6 p.m. Closed Class is $25.

The Mission Inn has three restaurants, a luxurious day spa, and a large pool. The hotel occupies an entire city block in downtown Riverside, with numerous restaurants, shops, and other historical buildings and museums surrounding it. The Mission Inn boasts 239 guest rooms, 28 suites, and every room is uniquely decorated. There is complimentary shuttle service to and from the Ontario Airport. Riverside is located in Southern California, approximately 60 miles southeast of Los Angeles, and approximately 35 miles east of Orange County. Shuttle arrangements must be made with the Hotel at least 24 hours in advance of arrival.
